

Cellist Julianne Boren has performed across the United States and in South Korea and Thailand as a member of the Orenunn Trio. She has held positions with the St. Joseph Symphony, Topeka Symphony, and Lawrence Chamber Orchestra, and has also played with the Wichita Symphony. She has taught at the K.C. Strings Conservatory and Baker University. Julianne is on the cello faculty at the International Music Camp and the K.C. Strings Summer Music Camp. Originally from Ponca City, Oklahoma, she holds a Bachelor of Music degree from Wichita State University and a Master of Music degree from DePaul University in Chicago. Her principal teachers included David Schepps, Christopher Costanza, Eleonore Schoenfeld, and Pamela Frame. Julianne recently moved to Minot, North Dakota in the fall of 2007 with her husband Mark. She is a member of the Minot Symphony Orchestra and the Northern Lights String Quartet. In addition, she also performs with the Western Plains Opera Orchestra and the Missouri Valley Chamber Orchestra. Julianne has been teaching privately for over 15 years and currently maintains a large private studio in Minot.