International Music Camp Professional Development for Educators 2010

Sessions 1 – 7 will run from June 13 – July 31, 2010

Credits: 1 or 2 professional development credits for each Session

IOR: Tim Wollenzien

Description:

“Professional Development for Educators 2010” at the International Music Camp consists of a 3-day or 6 –day self-designed experience for educators, at which participants may select the components that most fit their needs. Students will have the opportunity to work with leading guest conductors, active professional artists, and energetic teachers in approximately 30 disciplines.

Plan for Developing Individual Objectives:

PDE participants will arrive at camp on Sunday evening, and will meet with program coordinator and camp director, Dr. Timothy Wollenzien. A 15 hour (3 – day) or a 30 hour (6 day) session will be designed for each student, and objectives will be determined collaboratively.

Plan for Assessment of Learning:

Students will attend classes, lessons, rehearsals, seminars, and discussions throughout the scheduled days. Participants will be asked to keep a log for daily reflection, and, at the conclusion of the experience, a final plan on how they might apply new learning into their working situation will be developed. A culminating conference will take place with the coordinator on Wednesday (3 day) or Saturday (6 day), at which time evidence of participation and completion will be presented and verified by the coordinator.

Grading:

Grading will be Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory
